

Guardian Project MN

Faith forward connections to amplify impact in the fight against sex trafficking.

The Guardian Project at Saint Mary's Episcopal

Join us in bringing an end to the sex trafficking crisis that is taking place in our communities. With the Super Bowl fast approaching the time is now to become informed and engaged.

The Guardian Project – MN (GPMN) is being lead by Suzann Brown and Lindsay Krempely with the support of the Women's Foundation and one of the Super Bowl Committee's. The GPMN is convening faith forward individuals from the Twin Cities to inform, educate and inspire engagement with three local service organizations. GPMN is partnering with The Link, Breaking Free, and The Source.

We invite you to learn more about the topic and the needs of the local service organizations. Our goal is to equip you with all you will need to discern your level of engagement. We have scheduled three sessions. These sessions will provide you with insight, break your heart, and provide you with next steps in discerning your call to action. Choose from one of the three sessions to begin understanding if you have the capacity, heart and desire to engage.

When: Sunday, October 8th, 12:30-2:30 OR Sunday, October 29th, 12:30-2:30 OR Sunday, November 12, 12:30-2:30

Where: Saint Mary's Episcopal Church
1875 Laurel Avenue
St. Paul, MN

For additional information please contact Suzann Brown at suzannbrown.wma@gmail.com or Lindsay Krempely at Lindsay.Krempely@Thrivent.com www.guardianprojectmn.org/mn